

MENOMINEE TRIBAL ENTERPRISES

692 Attachment 3

Menominee Indian Tribe

Exhibit C
Description of Enterprise Personal Property

Enterprise personal property consists of all structures, appurtenances and improvements located on or connected with the real property described in Exhibit A; all machinery and equipment, all mobile equipment, all fire and safety equipment, all furniture and fixtures, all aerial photos, all inventories, including but not limited to logs, chip logs, pulp logs, lumber and warehouse, and all other personal property existing on or connected with the property described in Exhibit A; all accounts receivable, including but not limited to trade accounts receivable and miscellaneous accounts receivable, all contract receivables, all notes receivable, all open accounts, all accounts pending, all cash on hand, all contracts, licenses and deposits connected with the property described in Exhibit A together with all rights, privileges, immunities and franchises connected therewith; all transferable insurance policies connected with the property described in Exhibit A; all good will and all other assets of whatever nature connected with the property described in Exhibit A; all documents, papers, books, and records connected with the property described in Exhibit A; and all outstanding liabilities, obligations and debts connected with the property described in Exhibit A.

All of the above were transferred to the Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin by Menominee Enterprises, Inc., by bill of sale dated April 22, 1975.